M 2 Read and choose the best answer. Chippy is talking to his friend, Chuck.

Chippy: Something horrible happened to my son Charlie last winter.

- Chuck:
- A When did it happen?
 - B What happened?
 - C Who is Charlie?

Chippy: A branch fell off a tree.

- Chuck:
- A Why did it fall off?
 - B When did it fall off?
 - C Where did it fall off?

Chippy: It fell because it was too heavy. The branch was full of nuts and seeds.

- Chuck:
- A Who put the nuts and seeds inside the branch?
 - B Was there any chocolate inside the branch?
 - C Where were the nuts and seeds?

Chippy: I gathered lots of nuts and seeds and put them in the branch.
I gathered too many.

- Chuck: A Who gathered too many?
B What did you gather?
C Why did you gather so many?

Chippy: Because I wanted to have enough food for my family.
But I wasn't fair. I saved too much food, and the other chipmunks didn't have enough.

- Chuck: A What did the other chipmunks say?
B Where did the other chipmunks go?
C How did the other chipmunks feel?

Chippy: They felt hungry and weak and sick. They were very thin.
They weren't strong. But they helped me.

- Chuck: A Who helped you?
B How did they help you?
C Why were they thin?

Chippy: They worked together and moved the branch.
They helped Charlie. They helped me, and I felt very sorry.
This year I'm not so greedy.

- Chuck: A Are you keeping all the food for your family?
B Are you sharing the food with everyone?
C Are you putting all the food in your burrow?

3 Now choose the best title for the story.

- A Chuck learns about sharing.
B Chippy learns about branches.
C Chippy learns about sharing.
D Chippy learns about food.
E The other chipmunks learn to be healthy.
