3 Selk'nam Tribe

This tribe lives in the north of the land, in a beautiful place with many islands. It is very close to Antarctica. They hunt animals on the land and in the sea. They cook and eat the meat. They use the skins to make fur capes. In winter the weather is very cold but they do not wear many clothes.

Yamana Tribe

This tribe lives close to the Selk'nams. They live in the south of the land. They are called 'the canoe people' because they go hunting and fishing in their canoes. The weather here is much colder than in the north. The tribe uses fire for cooking and for staying warm. They use a special wood to make lots of smoke. If there is any danger, they light fires to tell people in the canoes about the danger. When the Yamanas see the smoke, they come home.

These two tribes are friends. Sometimes children from one tribe go to stay with a family from the other tribe. They do this to learn new things and to have new experiences.
