

M 1 Word wheel. Write the words and complete the puzzle.

The word wheel puzzle features a central letter 'F' surrounded by a circular arrangement of boxes. A vertical column of boxes contains the letters 's', 'e', 'i', 'r', 'i', 'a'. Surrounding the wheel are various illustrations and words labeled with letters: Fairies (A), Flowers (B), Shoes (C), Violin (D), Five (E), Finger (F), Flute (G), Fourteen (H), Fish (I), Frog (J), and Friday (L). The text 'The day after Thursday' is written in blue cursive.

M 2 Match words from List A and words from List B to make sentences.

List A

One day
In the evening
In the morning
That day
That night
The next day

List B

he walked home.
a woman and her son came to Lusmore's house.
Lusmore went to the market.
Jack went to the hill.
it was dark.
Lusmore saw Jack's hump.
he was the happiest man in Ireland.
Lusmore woke up.

- A One day Lusmore went to the market.
- B
- C
- D
- E
- F
- G
- H

M 3 Odd One Out.

- | | | | |
|-----------|-----------|---------|-----------|
| A ear | eye | mouth | leg |
| B back | hand | foot | ugly |
| C flute | candle | fiddle | harp |
| D Monday | Wednesday | Ireland | Saturday |
| E music | loud | small | beautiful |
| F evening | morning | night | moon |
| G star | dance | sing | laugh |

- A leg: because it is a part of the body. The others are parts of the face.
- B
- C
- D
- E
- F
- G

M 4 Choose the correct word in the sentences and match them with the pictures.

- Everything / Everybody said bad things about Lusmore.
- When Lusmore put his head on the ground, he heard something / nothing.
- One fairy said somewhere / something to another fairy.
- Lusmore looked at the road, but nothing / nobody was there.
- Nowhere / Nobody saw Jack Madden again.

M 5 Match the questions with the answers.

Write answers for three questions.

- A Why was the man called Lusmore?
- B Why did people say bad things about Lusmore?
- C Why did Lusmore yawn and close his eyes?
- D Why did the fairies want to see Lusmore?
- E Why was Lusmore afraid of one fairy?
- F Why did Lusmore laugh and dance?
- G Why did Jack Madden go to the hill?
- H Why were the fairies angry with Jack?
- I Why was Lusmore surprised?
- J Why were the fairies bad?

- 1 Because he was tired.
- 2 Because he was happy.
- 3 Because sometimes fairies can be bad.
- 4 Because they loved his singing.
- 5 Because he had a flower in his hat.
- 6 Because he wanted the fairies to take away his hump.
- 7 Because they didn't like his hump.
- 8
- 9
- 10

6 Complete the crossword with the past tense of the following words.

- 1 have
- 2 laugh
- 3 close
- 4 call
- 5 hear
- 6 see
- 7 go
- 8 touch
- 9 say
- 10 is
- 11 sit
- 12 dance
- 13 → wait
- 13 ↓ are
- 14 wake
- 15 tell
- 16 sing
- 17 come

M 7 Now use words from the crossword to complete the story.

Lusmore lived in Ireland. He was A Lusmore because he B a flower in his hat. People C bad things about Lusmore's hump One evening Lusmore was tired.

He D down on a hill and E his eyes.

He F singing inside the hill. Lusmore G to the fairies and they H out. Lusmore I and J because he had no hump.

In the morning Lusmore K up. He L his back.

The hump was gone. Lusmore M Jack Madden about the fairies. Jack N to the hill and O for the fairies. But the fairies P bad, because Jack Q
 a bad man. Nobody R Jack again.

8 Can you...?

- Can you name eight parts of the body?
- Can you say the days of the week?
- Can you say what happened in the past?
- Can you name five things that can play music?